

Strings 'n' Things

Who is it for?

Violin and cello students 6 years or older who want to learn in a creative, supportive and inter-generational environment. No musical experience needed.

When is it held?

July 12-16, 2010. In general, students will need to be available from 9am-3pm. More detailed schedule to come.

How do I register?

✉ 44 Crystal Lake Drive,
Brookfield, NS, B0N 1C0

☎ 902-650-2771

We accept cash or personal cheques payable to Anne Davison.

Deadline for registration: June 30, 2010.
Early bird rate deadline: June 1, 2010.

What can I expect?

Lots of fun! This camp is based on a holistic model which considers personal development to be essential to good music making. Exploration of all kinds is encouraged! Fostering a supportive community, we will do small and large group activities all focused on making us better creative artists through string playing. Activities will include singing, stretching, and games, among many other things!

What else do I need to know?

- ☞ Rental instruments are available for those who need them.
- ☞ You are responsible for bringing a snack and a packed lunch each day.
- ☞ On the first day of camp there will be a placement audition for those with previous musical training. Please prepare one piece prior to your arrival.
- ☞ There will be a "Bring a Friend Day" so think of someone you want to share the musical learning experience with.
- ☞ There will be a public performance on July 16th so keep your eyes peeled for more details!
